H: For the Year Ending March 1st, 1881 The committee to whom has been entrusted the supervision of the Schools for the year ending- March 1st, 1881, submit the following report: - The condition of the schools so far as we are able to judge, after considering the matter carefully, is as good as we can reasonably expect taking all things into consideration. Most of them are quite small as our people well know, this fact will not detract or need not, from their usefulness and advancement unless our citizens think it a useless expenditure to provide first-class teachers where there are so few scholars to be instructed; if there are sufficient scholars in a district to constitute a school the best teacher procurable is none too good. We cannot prize too highly our schools as a means of personal benefit to our children and as a means of increasing the intelligence and enterprise of a community; neglect them and our churches may soon be closed, when ignorance and vice will go hand-in-hand broad-cast over the land: Whatever is done for the maintainance and support of our public schools is done for the safety of our country; the interest in them ought not to be confined to parents alone, but every taxpayer should take a deep interest in them. If the entire community should have an eye upon the teacher with a view to their ability as instructors, it would we think have a tendency to raise the standard of qualification and necessarily inspire them to greater efforts.
