Characteristics of Companies in the Survey Sample 3. 1 Company Legal Status The great majority of companies responding to the survey identified themselves as corporations. Of the 481 firms that answered the question about their legal status on the first page of the survey, 436 or 90. 6 percent were the corporate form. The second most popular legal status was the Limited Liability Company, or Subchapter S Corporation, which is a hybrid between a sole proprietorship or limited partnership and a general corporation. About six percent, 29 companies in all, identified themselves as having this structure. Limited Partnerships were about 1. 5 percent, while all other legal structures were each less than 1 percent.
