FINGER PRINTS FOR COMMERCIAL AND PERSONAL IDENTIFICATION (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Finger Prints for Commercial and Personal Identification Edward H. Murphy, of the International Title Recording and Identification Bureau, is a nationally known criminal and civil investigator, having been actively engaged in secret service work for the past twenty-two years. He is head of the Murphy Secret Service Agency which he established in Detroit, Michigan, in 1906. Until recently, Mr. Murphy, like a great many others in a similar profession, thought of finger prints only as a means of identification for the criminally inclined. This idea has prevailed generally because of the fact that the men to whom we owe the present methods of finger print identification were, with but few exceptions, criminal investigators who, naturally, used the results of their study for the furtherance of their own line of work. In the United States alone, there are yearly many thousands of unidentified dead buried in unmarked graves. If, to this number, we add the thousands of missing persons and the hundreds of kidnapped children, the figures would total over 100,000 persons. Realizing that this appalling number could be reduced to a minimum were finger printing used as a means of personal and commercial identification, Mr. Murphy has decided to put the matter before the public in a plain, straightforward manner. He feels confident that they will readily approve and be anxious to adopt it. We do not claim to be the originators of the idea of universal finger printing. We would rather have it known that we are simply doing our share toward bringing the importance of this movement to the homes and firesides of all the people. While we are the originators of many...
