Atlantic Publishers & Distributors (P) Ltd., 2013. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. The term 'Indian drama' cannot be confined into a definition as it encompasses the entire gamut of Indian culture—the myths, the folklores, the history and the ethos of the country. Drama today has emerged as a powerful resurgent medium to project the problematics of the social, cultural, political, traditional and historical changes that the Indian society faces besides the issues related to gender, class, caste and communities. Present anthology contains twenty-seven scholarly...
