Reviews

*A very amazing publication with perfect and lucid information. We have read through and that I am certain that I will be planning to study once more yet again in the future. You will not really feel monotony at anytime of the time (that's what catalogues are for about should you question me).

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .If life gives you lemons, squeeze the lil suckers and let em know who s boss. -Cynthia Bond Hopson Do you need a friend? Meet Cynthia Bond Hopson. She s walked in your shoes and has the bunions to prove it. Her life hasn t always been easy, but she is dealing with it, praying about it, and laughing at it. In this little book, as in her popular Bad Hair Days, Rainy Days, and Mondays, she offers a month s worth of wisdom, advice, and encouragement for women in the form of 31 short daily meditational readings. These include: I m not fat, I m filled out Yes, you can have a sandwich without Miracle Whip Dignity it s your right Gotta have in-laws so we can have country music It s a bad habit, but it s mine Did I matter? Each reading consists of a quotation, a Scripture reading, the meditation itself, and a closing prayer, all written in a style that is conversational, humorous, and appealing. Cynthia Bond Hopson s newest book is vital devotional reading to anyone who is doing more than one thing at a time. She candidly writes about her multitasking life and invites us along for an inspiring journey. She will make you laugh, cry, and think. -Sheron C. Patterson, author of A Mile in Her Shoes Cynthia Bond Hopson has written thought-provoking and inspirational columns, feature articles, and speeches. She has been nominated for teaching excellence and has twice been named to the Who s Who Among American Teachers. Formerly associate professor of journalism at the University of Memphis, she is assistant general secretary of the Black College...
