

India China Relations: An Agenda For Asian Century

By P.M. Kamath

2011. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 292 pages. English India-China Relations An Agenda for Asian Century is based on revised updated and edited papers submitted at a two-day national seminar organized by VPM's Centre for International Studies Regd in March 2006. It is the belief of the organizers that sound bilateral relations can best be promoted particularly when there are contentious issues among them based on historic past by initially focusing on low political but highly people oriented issues and later move to resolve nationally emotive high political issues. In the area of low politics RK Mishra and DR Arjun Rao discuss economic reforms in China with reference to privatization of public enterprises. Sudha Mohan looks at urbanization in India and China comparatively while analyzing its impact on these two Asian giants emergence as major powers and also suggests remedial measures. Avinash Kollhe has taken up a study of Muslims as minorities in India and China. Though it is easy to see bilateral relations in a bifocal framework there is always a grey area between low and high politics; and India-China relations are no exception. Within grey area PM Kamath in his analysis of Sino-Indian doctrine of No First Use of Nuclear weapons...
