George Bethune English (1787-1828) was a critic of traditional Christianity and an adventurer. He graduated from Harvard College in 1807. During his theology studies, he began to doubt the truth of the Christian religion, which he critiqued in a book entitled The Grounds of Christianity Examined by Comparing the New Testament with the Old (1813). Edward Everett published a rejoinder to it, to which English responded with his book Five Pebbles from the Brook (1824).

Without doubt, this is actually the best job by any publisher. It is written in basic phrases instead of difficult to understand. You will like the way the author publish this publication.
