Not illustrated. 1898 Excerpt: .will add a variety to the tour. A pleasant combination tour for bicyclers is to go to East Jordan by wheel and return by steamer, or vice versa. Although a little better road may be had by keeping above Ironton, the gain is very slight and the tourist is strongly recommended to visit this little town. The old iron furnace and charcoal kiln will be full of interest. Leaving Charlevoix, then, the route lies past the Bellvedere hotel and then parallel with the railroad track for a short distance. The large building on the shore is the D. M. Ferry Seed Co s warehouse, where fine seeds, especially peas of which this region produces a superior quality, are stored. A little further on the road crosses the railroad track, and ascending a little way a small hill, we keep to the left road and follow parallel...
