

Reel Conversations: Reading Films with Young Adults (Paperback)

By Alan B. Teasley, Ann Wilder

Heinemann USA, United States, 1996. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. From its beginnings, cinema has forged a distinct medium, a literature in its own right, as worthy of study as print literature. A good film, like a good book or poem, can delight, provoke the imagination, inspire serious thought, discussion, and writing. Perhaps especially today, film can and should be an essential component in the language arts curriculum, given students increasing reliance on visual imagery in defining their world. In Reel Conversations, Alan Teasley and Ann Wilder discuss and demonstrate the powerful role film can play in the language arts classroom, both as a subject in itself and as a key dimension of language study. Reel Conversations provides middle and high school teachers with proven methods for teaching with and about films in conjunction with literature and composition classes. It describes techniques for instruction, details over two hundred films appropriate for classroom use, and offers a corresponding list of young adult novels. Samples of student writing in response to selected films are also provided. Teasley and Wilder make clear the connections between the study of film and print literature. The units...
