Two years previously (in 1816) Mr Goodwyn had printed for private circulation the First centenary. There is a copy of this earlier edition in the library of the Royal Society: it exactly resembles the First centenary of 1818, but the Tabular series is not added1. The introduction to the Tabular series of 1818 1 There is no title-page is the copy, bat the following address appears on the first page. The Calculator of about a Chiliad of Tables, from the application of which, in various ways, he has himself derived considerable benefit, has been induced to print the annexed Centenary as a Specimen. Encouraged likewise by Friends--not, perhaps, quite impartial--to give them some publicity, yet still doubtful in himself commences with the words Sipn e First Centenary, c., and its Introduction were printed,...
