Sometimes, it is as explicit and convincing, as any proof that could be presented to the human mind, respecting visible or temporal things. And sometimes, it is only sufficient to sustain such a hope of immortality, as prevents distressing anxiety on the subject of acceptance with God. This hope cannot, be bright or lively. But the Spirit's witness is never so utterly withdrawn, even in the worst seasons of darkness and declension, as to induce absolute despair. Job could say, though he slay me, yet will I trust him. The psalmist could say, under severe chastisements, I am continually with thee; thou hast holden me by my right hand. It may, then, be inferred, that, although real Christians may have their assurance of salvation diminished and...
