Use your creative imagination to create a past that belongs to your character. I don't want you to be stuck with your own life. It's too little." & "You must get beneath the words before you can say them. The text must be in you. It is your job to fill, not to empty the words. They can only be used if they come out of what you need to say." * From one the most celebrated & influential acting teachers of all time, whose generations of students include Marlon Brando, Anthony Quinn, Eva Marie Saint, Diana Ross, Robert De Niro, Warren Beatty, Annette Benning, Peter Bogdanovich, & Mark Ruffalo, the long-awaited companion volume to her book on the master European playwrights Ibsen, Strindberg & Chekhov. Stella Adler was a force of nature, an unforgettable personality. Once, when she walked into a crowded room & her presence caused a hush to fall over it, a little girl asked, "Mommy, is that God?" Adler saw script interpretation as the actor's profession: "The most...
